

You are cordially invited

Dearest Esteemed Guest,

The social season is upon us, and it is with great pleasure that we extend an invitation to join us for an afternoon of inspired conversation, delightful refreshments, and meaningful connection.

The Art of Gathering

Set amidst the beauty of the season at Kingbridge, this elegant garden gathering will offer a fresh perspective on the spaces and experiences that help bring people together with purpose. We aim to cultivate collaboration, inspire fresh thinking, and create opportunities for ideas to flourish.

Join us on Thursday, the 27th of August, 2026, for a most splendid affair from 2:00 in the afternoon until 5:00 in the evening at the esteemed Kingbridge Centre.

Kindly honour us with your reply by August 10th, 2026.

*With the greatest anticipation,
The Kingbridge Team*

Place Matters

Nestled on 113 acres of forests, gardens, and walking trails, The Kingbridge Centre is a purpose-built destination where organizations come together to think differently, collaborate meaningfully, and create lasting impact.

Designed to support productivity, creativity, and connection, Kingbridge offers 44 flexible meeting and event spaces, 124 guest rooms, chef-crafted culinary experiences, and thoughtfully curated amenities—all within a distraction-free, nature-immersed setting just a short drive from downtown Toronto.

We look forward to welcoming you and sharing the experiences that make Kingbridge more than a venue—it's a place where great ideas flourish.
